Correspondence-Osawatomie Public Library has an Adult Halloween at the Hall October 30, 2026. Proceeds from the event are directed to the Osawatomie Public Library Expansion Fund held by the Miami County Community Fund. Janna Renner mentioned they would like a donated quilt for the Silent Auction. Pam Pearson generously donated her Show and Tell quilt to the group. Threads of the Games 2028 has a brochure on their website if anyone is interested in entering a quilt in the California Quilt Exhibition.

Programs- Today Christina De Armonda, co-owner of the Eudora Quilt Shop presents My Quilting Journey. Jane Drugg has sign-ups available for her Reverse Applique Sweatshirt workshop Saturday, October 3 at 9AM-3PM. Nancy Hart-Kline sent out the supply list. November 5th Guild Meeting-Program Lyn Heilman Batting Super Sale via Zoom, November 14 Workshop -Four Types of Binding by Mary Honas and December 3rd, Guild Meeting combined with 6PM Holiday Potluck.

Quilt Show-Branda Jenkins would like everyone to fill out the short survey about the Show. The 2026 Miami County Quilt Show had the highest entries and attendance of any show. Branda will report next month all the details of the show. Boutique items, baskets and silent auction items are on the back tables for pick up. The boutique items are bagged per person with your total sales if you keep track of your sales for free membership. Lonnie Vopat has several quilts that need to be identified - donation item or not a donated quilt.

Challenge- The July 2027 Challenge theme will be Quilts to Clothes/ Clothes to Quilts.

Community Service-Dianna Cook has three quilted hugs left over from the Quilt Show. Beth Dawson will receive one, the other two are available. The Miami County Cancer Foundation is in need of more lap quilts, several completed quilts from the back will be labeled and delivered but more will be needed.

Block of the Month-Jane Drugg displayed the Red, White and Blue block for Texas.

KCRQF-We currently have five maybe six quilts to donate to the Women Veterans. Yardage, not scrap, donations are welcome so a few of the quilts in back can be made to the required size. Our representatives meet next week and will receive new information for the November meeting.

New Business-The Board will be posting the Board Minutes with the monthly newsletter. Thank you to Jonel Hammons for taking the minutes at the Board Meetings. Board Meetings are the Tuesday before the meetings, Meetings are on Zoom and open to any member, if you are interested Michelle Pixler, PM President can add you to the Invite/meeting.

Someone is needed to take over the iPad to record the morning meetings. The responsibilities involved are arriving early to set up, recording the meeting, and taking the iPad home to charge.

Old Business-The third floor storage area is being moved to a second floor room. Help is needed to move the remaining items to our new climate controlled storage on the second floor. Please contact R. Michelle Pixler if you are able to help. If anyone is interested the Guild will have a filing cabinet and some totes to sell soon. It was mentioned that the Facebook page (private and public) and Website has outdated information and we are in need of someone to go through and organize these “pages”.

Birthdays- AM members born in October, Heidi Kessler and Jerri Hefler were recognized.
